11. Beneficiary Information

Revocable and irrevocable beneficiaries

There are two types of beneficiaries: revocable and irrevocable.

- A beneficiary designation is considered revocable unless you make it irrevocable. This will allow the policy Owner to change their beneficiary designation at any time without the current beneficiary consent.
- If you name a beneficiary as irrevocable, your ability to deal with the policy is limited. For example, you cannot change the beneficiary without their consent unless permitted by law.
- In Quebec, if a married or civil union spouse is named beneficiary, the designation is irrevocable unless otherwise stated.
- Your estate cannot give consent to make any changes on the policy if they are designated as an irrevocable beneficiary.
- A minor child designated as an irrevocable beneficiary cannot consent to make any changes to the policy (including changing the beneficiary) and a parent, guardian, or tutor may not give consent on behalf of a minor child.

Primary Beneficiaries (share of benefits must add up to 100%)

Legal Name (first, middle initial, last or Corporate/entity name)	Relationship to Annuitant	Date of Birth for Minor Beneficiary (dd/mmm/yyyy)	Beneficiary Designation	% share of benefits to be paid

			<input type="checkbox"/> Revocable <input type="checkbox"/> Irrevocable	%

The person you name as the primary beneficiary will receive the death benefit or any remaining guaranteed income payments if all Annuitants die before income payments have begun or before all guaranteed income payments have been made. If the primary beneficiary dies before the Annuitant does, the secondary beneficiary (if one is designated) will receive the death benefit or any remaining guaranteed payments. A secondary beneficiary does not have rights while a primary beneficiary exists.

Payments of benefits when the beneficiary is a minor

- Except where Quebec law applies, we will pay benefits to the trustee for the minor beneficiary, if you have named one. If no trustee is named, we will make the payments as the law requires.
- Where Quebec law applies, we will pay the parent(s) of the minor beneficiary or Tutor duly appointed by law.

Trustee for minors (not available in Quebec)

Name of trustee for minors: _____

By naming a trustee for a minor beneficiary, you agree that any benefit that become payable to a minor child will be paid to the trustee to hold in trust for the child until the child becomes of age.
