

The case for corporate cards: How effective is your payment program?

Corporate cards streamline the payables process, while simultaneously improving controls, management of information and payment terms to suppliers.

Physical Card · Cardless/Ghost Account · Virtual Card

Improve Efficiency and Increase Productivity

Reduce processing time and admin costs while ensuring prompt supplier payment

Simplify payables process and increase employee convenience

Improve ability to negotiate supplier contracts with consolidated spend information

Enhance Control and Security

Protect against fraud and employee card misuse

Centralize spend control

Improve spend visibility with 24/7 online information, including enhanced reporting

Savings

Significant savings can be realized by moving payments from check to card

