Management Discussion of Fund Performance

BMO Harris Investment Management Inc. ("BHIMI" or the "Manager"), the manager and portfolio manager, is responsible for the management of the overall business, investments and operations of the BMO Harris Private Portfolios and has engaged BMO Asset Management Corp. ("BMO AM Corp." or the "sub-advisor") as the sub-advisor of BMO Harris U.S. Special Equity Portfolio (the "Portfolio").

Results of Operations

For the six-month period ended June 30, 2014, the Portfolio returned 5.92% in C$ (5.38% in US$), after expenses. The Portfolio's benchmark is the Russell 2000 Growth Index, which generated a 2.60% total return in C$ (2.22% in US$) over the same six-month period.

U.S. markets were hampered early in the period by severe winter weather but performed strongly later in the period as a result of rallying shares in the Energy and Technology sectors. Markets were supported by the continued accommodative monetary policies of central banks across the globe and by relatively stable inflation. A slowly improving unemployment rate in the United States supported consumer spending and higher stock prices.

The Portfolio outperformed the benchmark over the period. The Portfolio's overweight position in the Energy sector and underweight position in the Consumer Discretionary sector contributed to performance. The Energy sector was the Portfolio's strongest performing sector during the period.

Significant individual contributors to performance included Bellatrix Exploration Ltd., Approach Resources Inc. and William Lyon Homes. Bellatrix Exploration Ltd. benefited from firm commodities prices and continued drilling success, which resulted in a year-over-year acceleration in production and cash flow growth. Approach Resources Inc. is an energy driller focused in the Permian basin of west Texas, the lowest cost basin in North America for oil drilling. Firm commodity pricing as well as recent nearby merger and acquisition activity have benefited the company's shares. William Lyon Homes, a homebuilder focused on the U.S. West Coast, is benefiting from the continued improvement in new home sales as the market recovers.

The Portfolio's underweight exposure to the Materials sector detracted from performance, as a result of firming commodity prices. Significant individual detractors from performance included homebuilder TRI Pointe Homes, Inc., digital advertising and marketing tools firm Rocket Fuel Inc., and IT services provider Infoblox Inc. TRI Pointe Homes, Inc. is in the midst of acquiring the homebuilding and development operations of Weyerheuser Corp. Rocket Fuel Inc.'s share price fell alongside other Internet-related stocks in a sell-off during a period of market volatility from March to April. Infoblox Inc. struggled with disappointing sales.

During the period, the sub-advisor added several positions in the Portfolio, including Restoration Hardware Holdings, Inc., Cornerstone OnDemand, Inc.

BMO Harris U.S. Special Equity Portfolio

and Lannett Company, Inc. The sub-advisor believes that Restoration Hardware Holdings, Inc. should benefit from strong square footage growth potential, and is encouraged that comparable stores are experiencing accelerating sales. Cornerstone OnDemand, Inc. is a provider of talent management software via the cloud. The company's growth is accelerating. Lannett Company, Inc. is a pharmaceuticals firm with enough products in its pipeline to drive multi-year growth.

The sub-advisor eliminated several of the Portfolio's holdings, including Infoblox Inc., Unit Corporation and Salix Pharmaceuticals, Ltd. Infoblox Inc. made some sales missteps and management changes that negatively affected the company, in the sub-advisor's view. Unit Corporation and Salix Pharmaceuticals, Ltd. were sold in response to share price appreciation. As well, Salix Pharmaceuticals, Ltd. grew and is no longer considered a small-capitalization company.

For information on the Portfolio's longer-term performance and composition, please refer to the Past Performance section and Summary of Investment Portfolio section of this report.

Recent Developments

Macroeconomic factors will continue to impact the Portfolio; however, the sub-advisor believes that when the U.S. Federal Reserve Board completes winding down its asset purchase program, these factors should have less of an impact on stock prices. Stocks should return to being priced more on their fundamental strength than in response to the actions of central bankers. The sub-advisor has positioned the Portfolio in companies and sectors that are expected to continue to benefit from ongoing economic expansion in the United States. The sub-advisor expects the economy to re-accelerate over the balance of 2014.

Significant Accounting Changes Resulting from our Adoption of IFRS

Effective January 1, 2014, the Portfolio adopted International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") as its basis of accounting. The semi-annual financial statements for the period ended June 30, 2014 are the first set of financial statements prepared on an IFRS basis. The adjustments made to reflect the impact of the change from Canadian GAAP to IFRS are presented in note 8 to the financial statements.

Key changes to the financial statements as a result of the implementation of IFRS are:

- Statement of Financial Position has replaced the former Statement of Net Assets:
 - The Portfolio's unitholders investments in the units of the Portfolios did not qualify for equity classification under IFRS and have been classified as a financial liability for financial reporting purposes.
 - Classification of financial instruments: derivatives and short positions have been classified as held for trading while all other financial instruments have been designated as fair valued through profit and loss ("FVTPL"). Following adoption of IFRS by the Portfolio, for financial reporting purposes the Portfolio now fair values its investment securities traded on an exchange at close price, which is determined as the price within the bid ask range that represents the best estimate of fair value.
- Statement of Comprehensive Income replaced Statement of Operations
 - The Portfolio accounts for interest income using the effective interest rate method, rather than the coupon method previously used under Canadian GAAP.
- Statement of Changes in Net Assets Attributable to Holders of Redeemable Units replaced the Statement of Changes in Net Assets and the Portfolio now presents a Statement of Cash Flows.
- Other notable changes to the financial statement notes include additional or enhanced information in the notes to the financial statements, including a more detailed note and reconciliation on the Portfolio's transition from Canadian GAAP to IFRS.

Related Party Transactions

BMO Trust Company, an indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary of Bank of Montreal, is the trustee (the "trustee") and BHIMI is the manager of the Portfolio. From time to time, BHIMI may, on behalf of the Portfolio, enter into transactions or arrangements with or involving other members of BMO Financial Group, or certain other persons or companies that are related or connected to the Portfolio (each, a "related party" and collectively, the "related parties").

BMO Harris U.S. Special Equity Portfolio

Sub-advisor

BHIMI has hired BMO AM Corp. to provide investment advice and make investment decisions for the Portfolio's investment portfolio. BMO AM Corp. receives an investment advisory fee based on assets under management that is paid quarterly. BMO AM Corp. is paid by BHIMI, and BHIMI charges a portion of the sub-advisory fee as an expense to the Portfolio.

Wealth Management Fee

Units of the Portfolio are only available through the wealth management service offered by BMO Financial Group. The trustee, a related party, and the manager receive an annual fee from each investor for the wealth management service offered by BMO Financial Group. A tiered schedule is applied to calculate the annual fee for this service. The fee schedule starts at 1.95% and declines to 0.20% (depending on the nature and size of the investor's investment portfolio), and is calculated as a percentage of the assets under management. The actual wealth management fee payable by each investor is set out in BHIMI's Investment Management Fee Schedule that has been provided to the investor when the investor enters into an investment management agreement with the trustee and BHIMI. The wealth management fee is paid directly by the investor to the trustee and the manager. The trustee may compensate financial institutions and securities registrants within BMO Financial Group for client referrals to the wealth management service.

Unitholder Services

The Portfolio is provided with certain facilities and services by related parties. BMO Asset Management Inc. ("BMO AM Inc.") is the registrar of the Portfolio. The trustee and BMO AM Inc. are paid by the Portfolio for fees relating to the custodial and administrative services they provide, respectively. Administrative services include fund accounting, record keeping and purchases/redemption order processing. The fees charged to the Portfolio during the period were as follows:

	Period ended June 30, 2014 ($000s)	Period ended June 30, 2013 ($000s)
Unitholder Services	87	73

Management Fee

There is no management fee charged to the Portfolio. The trustee and the manager receive an annual wealth management fee from investors for the wealth management service offered by BMO Financial Group.

⁽¹⁾ This information is derived from the Portfolio's audited annual financial statements and unaudited June 30, 2014 semi-annual financial statements. Prior to 2014, the net assets per unit presented in the financial statements differed from the net asset value calculated for portfolio pricing purposes. An explanation of these differences can be found in the notes to the financial statements.

⁽²⁾ Includes commissions and portfolio transaction costs. Prior to 2014, withholding taxes were not included in expenses as they were included in revenue.

⁽³⁾ Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of units outstanding at the relevant time. The increase/decrease from operations is based on the weighted average number of units outstanding over the financial period. This table is not intended to be a reconciliation of beginning to ending net assets per unit.

⁽⁴⁾ Distributions were paid in cash or reinvested in additional units of the Portfolio, or both.

⁽⁵⁾ Net assets prior to 2014 were calculated under Canadian GAAP. Net assets in 2014 were calculated under IFRS.

Net asset value per unit	$ 7.52	7.10	4.68	4.44	5.46	4.79

⁽²⁾ Management expense ratio is based on total expenses (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.

⁽³⁾ The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.

⁽⁴⁾ The portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Portfolio's sub-advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Portfolio buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher a portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Portfolio in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a portfolio.

Past Performance

General

The Portfolio's performance information assumes that all distributions made by the Portfolio in the periods shown were reinvested in additional units of the Portfolio and is based on the net asset value of the Portfolio.

The performance information does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or other optional charges that, if applicable, would have reduced returns or performance. Please remember, how the Portfolio has performed in the past does not necessarily indicate how it will perform in the future.

Year-by-Year Returns

The following bar charts show the performance for each of the financial years and for the six-month period ended June 30, 2014 shown and illustrate how the performance has changed from year to year. The bar charts show in percentage terms how an investment made on the first day of each financial year would have increased or decreased by the last day of each financial year.
