5. Joint Owner Information (Non-registered nominee contracts only)

The Joint Owner must be a Canadian resident at the time the application is completed.

The policy may be held in joint ownership with survivorship or as tenants in common.

Joint ownership with right of survivorship: On the death of one Policyowner, the surviving Policyowner automatically becomes the sole Policyowner of the entire Contract. Except for Quebec, joint ownership is with survivorship if no selection is made. In Quebec, joint ownership is without survivorship if no selection is made.

Joint tenants in common: Each Policyowner's share passes to his or her estate on death unless a Successor Owner was named. You may wish to designate a Successor Owner to take over your share on your death and facilitate the transfer of ownership.

What you understand and agree to when you sign this application

Your signature in section 12 of this application confirms that:

- you agree that the information you provided is complete and accurate;
- you have reviewed your investment objectives and risk profile with your advisor and agree that the investment(s) chosen are suitable within the context to your overall investment portfolio;
- for nominee registered contracts, the Beneficiary is the trustee of the nominee registered plan on your behalf;
- the potential for creditor protection may be lost by having the Contract held in the name of a trustee or agent for the trustee of the nominee registered contracts or someone who is not the individual Beneficial Owner;
- you authorize BMO Insurance to accept instructions from your Dealer to execute financial and non-financial transactions in accordance with your instructions and the terms of the Policy Provisions; you understand that BMO Insurance shall not be liable for following the instructions provided by your Dealer;
- you also authorize BMO insurance to deliver to your Dealer the documents that may be sent in connection to your Contract, including confirmations and statements;
- you understand that your Contract will be effective upon receipt of your initial deposit and the application is properly completed;
- nature of segregated funds: you understand that except for the guarantee on maturity or death, deposits made to a segregated fund are not guaranteed but fluctuate with the market value;
- you understand that an irrevocable Beneficiary designation will limit certain rights you have under this Contract unless you receive written consent from the Beneficiary or if otherwise permitted by law. A parent, guardian or tutor cannot provide consent on behalf of a minor who has been named as irrevocable Beneficiary;
- you have the right to change your mind about purchasing this Contract by sending us a written notice within 2 business days of the earlier of the date you receive confirmation or 5 business days after it is mailed;
- you may discuss any questions or concerns you may have by contacting your advisor or our Administrative and Services Office. More information about our complaint resolution procedures is available on the internet at www.bmoinsurance.com.

BMO Insurance Privacy Notice

To learn more about how we collect, use, disclose and safeguard your personal information, your choices, and the rights you have, please see our Privacy Code (available at bmo.com/privacy). BMO Insurance has requested personal information in respect of your application for insurance. BMO Insurance will use this information and information in its existing files to assess risk, process your application, administer any policy, if issued and to investigate claims. BMO Insurance will also use and collect additional information from third parties to evaluate and investigate claims. BMO Insurance will keep your information in a file in its offices and will not disclose the information in that file except to those BMO Insurance employees, advisors, its affiliates, administrators or reinsurers who need access to assess risk and investigate claims. From time to time, BMO Insurance may wish to offer you upgrades to your coverage and additional products and services. You may ask us not to make these offers to you by writing to our Privacy Officer at the address below. You may also request, upon presentation of proper identification and proof of entitlement, to review and if appropriate, correct, your personal information in our possession by writing to Privacy Officer, BMO Insurance, 250 Yonge St, 9th floor, Toronto, ON M5B 2L7.
