Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

This notice is provided by BMO Bank N.A. for its consumer customers, including all cardholders of Diners Club and Carte Blanche Professional cards issued by us.

What we do

How does BMO Bank N.A. protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does BMO Bank N.A. collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- open an account or deposit money
- apply for a loan or use your credit or debit card
- seek advice about your investments

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more information on your rights under state laws.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to you only, unless you tell us otherwise.
