Insufficient Funds and Overdrafts

Your Account is overdrawn when there is a negative balance that occurs when we pay an item that you do not have sufficient available funds in your Account to pay when the item is presented for payment. The Account balance that we use to determine if your Account is overdrawn includes all items (including bank fees and service charges) that are posted to your Account on the same Business Day whether the items are paid or returned. In the Agreement, refer to Section 2.B for information on how we determine whether you have sufficient available funds and Section 2.C for information on when items post to your Account.

At our discretion, we may pay or return all items that overdraw this Account. When we return an item unpaid because your Account does not have sufficient available funds, we don't charge a fee. When we pay an item and your Account does not have sufficient available funds, an Overdraft Fee may be charged.

Overdraft Fee	$20 per item (No more than three Overdraft Fees will be charged per Business Day)	You will be charged an Overdraft Fee for each item we pay when your Account is overdrawn more than $20 after all items are posted to the Account. We will not charge you an Overdraft Fee if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The amount of the item is less than or equal to $5; • Your Account is overdrawn by $20 or less at the close of the Business Day the item is presented for payment; • Your Account is overdrawn by $20 or less at the close of the first Business Day after the item is presented for payment. Deposits may not be available immediately. Please see our Funds Availability Policy for Deposit Accounts in Section 8 of the Agreement for more information; • Your Account has already been charged three (3) Overdraft Fees for the applicable Business Day; • The item is a bank fee we assess pursuant to the terms of the Agreement; • We previously returned the item unpaid; • You had sufficient available funds to pay the item when the item was authorized.
