

REQUEST TO OPEN A NEW PERSONAL CANADIAN DOLLAR PRIMARY CHEQUING
ACCOUNT AT BANK OF MONTREAL – NEWCOMERS TO CANADA

Print clearly using blue or black ink.

Insert your full name

You intend to arrive in Canada within the next 12 months, and so request Bank of Montreal (we or BMO) to open a personal Canadian Dollar Primary Chequing Account (a chequing account), in your name, at the following branch, prior to your arrival:

Print clearly using blue or black ink.

Name of BMO branch
Unit Number (if applicable)	Street Number	Street Name
P.O. Box Number (if applicable)	City	Province/Territory	Postal Code
Telephone number including area code

Required Documentation:

You have enclosed the required documents with this letter as follows:

- An originally completed Certificate of Identity – Banker – Newcomers to Canada Account Open Request
- An originally completed Certificate of Identity – Lawyer/Solicitor – Newcomers to Canada Account Open Request
- Photocopied/certified identification document – one from your banker and one from your lawyer/solicitor

You understand these documents must be mailed or couriered and cannot be faxed to the BMO branch indicated above. We require original documents be provided in all cases. You understand that a representative from the BMO branch will contact you if there are any discrepancies with the documents provided.

You understand we will mail back to your personal address, as shown on the completed Certificate of Identity documents:

- A copy of the Everyday Banking Account Application Form,
- A letter enclosing your chequing account number, and
- A copy of the Agreements, Bank Plans and Fees for Everyday Banking.

Upon your receipt of these documents, you may forward funds via international wire transfer to your BMO branch to be deposited into your new chequing account. You understand that funds should be remitted in Canadian dollars. If you choose to remit funds in any other currency, you understand that the funds received by us will be converted to Canadian dollars for deposit to your new chequing account. You understand that you may only make one deposit in advance of your arrival in Canada.

Initial Deposit

In order for us to comply with applicable regulations, complete the following if you intend to make an international wire transfer after your new chequing account has been opened and prior to your arrival in Canada.

Your chequing account will be in Canadian dollars. If you send funds in any other currency, we will convert the funds to Canadian dollars for deposit to your chequing account.

You may only make one international wire transfer.

Print clearly using blue or black ink.

Amount in Canadian dollars:	C$
Funds will be sent within:	(in months)
Cannot exceed 12 months
Source of funds:
Provide a description of where the funds will be coming from

You are expected to arrive in Canada within 12 months of the date of this request form, and you understand that we are unable to hold funds in your name for longer than this 12-month period unless you provide proof that your landing date in Canada has been delayed, in which case we may hold funds in your name for an additional 12-month period. If you do not arrive in Canada within the initial 12-month period, or, if extended, the second 12-month period, any funds in your account will be returned to the financial institution that sent the funds on your behalf. You are responsible for any fees associated with returning funds back to your financial institution.

Access To Your Account

You understand your account will not be accessible to you until you arrive in Canada and go in person to your BMO branch to have your identity verified by our employee.

You understand your chequing account will be set up with paperless statements and the Practical Plan. Until you arrive in Canada and have your identified, the Plan fee will be rebated.

You understand your chequing account will not earn interest.

You understand you must bring with you the same identification document provided to your banker and Lawyer/Solicitor and certified by them, along with proof of your authorized landing in Canada issued by the Government of Canada.

Privacy Disclosure & Consent

Your Personal Information

BMO Financial Group is committed to respecting and protecting the privacy and confidentiality of your Personal Information and wants to help you understand how we collect, use and share it. Please see our Privacy Code (available at bmo.com/privacy, from any of our branches or by calling 1- 877 CALL BMO (225-5266)) for details. BMO also accepts calls made via Telecommunications Relay Service (TRS).

What is Personal Information?

Your Personal Information includes information you provided to us or information we collected from other sources about you, such as your name, address, age, financial data, Social Insurance Number, or employment records, and other information that could be used to identify you.

Why do we need your Personal Information?

We collect your Personal Information to:

- verify your identity;
- ensure we have accurate information about you;
- understand your financial needs (including your eligibility for products and services you requested or accepted) and to manage our relationship;
- protect against fraud and manage other risks;
- communicate with you regarding products and services that may be of interest;
- understand our customers, including through analytics, and to develop and tailor our products and services;
- comply with legal or regulatory requirements, or as permitted by law; and
- respond to questions you may have.

If we use your Personal Information for a different purpose, we will identify that purpose.

Sharing your Personal Information

BMO Financial Group consists of Bank of Montreal and its affiliates. Your Personal Information, including information about your authorized representatives and beneficiaries, is shared within BMO Financial Group, to the extent permitted by law, to:

- ensure we have accurate information about you, and your authorized representatives and beneficiaries,
- manage our total relationship,
- provide a better customer experience,
- meet your needs as they change and grow, and
- manage our business.

Please see our Privacy Code for details.

Your Choices

Sharing: You may choose not to allow us to share account-specific information within BMO Financial Group, but you understand we will share your Personal Information where two or more BMO Financial Group affiliates provide you with jointly offered products or services.

Direct marketing: You may choose not to allow us to use your Personal Information for direct marketing, such as mail, telemarketing or email informing you about products and services we think may be of interest and value to you.

Please see "Contact Us" in our Privacy Code for more details.

Instruction Sheet:

Opening a New Personal Canadian Dollar Primary Chequing Account with Bank of Montreal Prior to Arrival in Canada

You can open one chequing account (chequing account) up to 12 months prior your arrival in Canada:

First, select a branch of Bank of Montreal (we or BMO) by visiting <https://branchlocator.bmo.com> and record the branch name, complete mailing address including the postal code, and telephone number.

Next, print and complete the following documents and steps below:

1) The *Letter of Direction – Banker - Certificate of Identify Request

Take this document to your banker. It is your formal request for their assistance in opening a chequing account in Canada. Please indicate the name of your financial institution in the space provided and sign and date the document.

2) The *Certificate of Identity - Banker – Newcomers to Canada Account Open Request

Take this document to your banker along with one piece of acceptable government-issued photo identification document for completion as described in the Letter of Direction - Banker above.

3) The *Letter of Direction – Lawyer/Solicitor - Certificate of Identity Request

Take this document to your lawyer/solicitor. It is your formal request for their assistance in opening a chequing account in Canada. Please indicate the name of your lawyer or solicitor in the space provided and sign and date the document.

4) The *Certificate of Identity– Lawyer/Solicitor Newcomers to Canada Account Open Request

Take this document to your lawyer or solicitor along with one piece of acceptable government-issued photo identification document for completion as described on the Letter of Direction - Lawyer/Solicitor above.

5) Complete Request to Open a New Personal Canadian Dollar Primary Chequing Account at Bank of Montreal – Newcomers to Canada

6) Gather the completed Certificates of Identity, along with the certified photocopied identification document and the Request to Open a New Personal Canadian Dollar Primary Chequing Account form, and mail them all to the mailing address of the BMO branch in Canada where you selected to open your chequing account.

The BMO branch you selected will mail back to you documents acknowledging the chequing account has been opened, will provide you with your new chequing account number, and will provide a copy of the Agreements, Bank Plans and Fees for Everyday Banking. You will then be able to send one international wire transfer to your new chequing account.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Your chequing account will be in Canadian dollars. If you send funds in any other currency, we will convert the funds to Canadian dollars for deposit to your chequing account. We are not able to hold your deposited funds in your chequing account longer than 12 months or, for an additional 12 months thereafter if you request to extend with proof.

Re: Certificate of Identity:

(Name of Individual)

I wish to establish a new personal banking relationship with Bank of Montreal (the bank or BMO) in Canada. I request your assistance to enable me to satisfy the rules and regulations of the Government of Canada's Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Act, by providing your confirmation that you have reviewed my original identification documents.

In this regard, I ask that you undertake the following activities in order to satisfy BMO's account opening requirements.

- 1 Complete the attached Certificate of Identity – Banker – Newcomers to Canada Account Open Request in my presence. Both you and I will sign the completed document.
- 2 Review my original identification document and make a clear photocopy of one piece of presented government-issued photo identification document. On the copy, record the following:
"Compared to the original and certified to be a true copy of the identification document presented to me by _____, dated this _____ day of _____, 20____." Sign your name and affix your title, office and the name of your organization.

Please note: An acceptable identification document must be original, valid and in good condition. An acceptable identification document is a driver's license or passport or any other federal or provincial / territorial / state government issued photo identification document that is recordable (for example: governing legislation does not prohibit from being recorded).

- 3 Provide the completed and signed documentation to me so that I can mail or courier direct to BMO. All forwarded information, including presented identification documents, may be subject to reconfirmation by the bank.

Thank you in advance for your assistance with this important matter.

Yours truly,
