3. Escalate to the BMO Ombudsman

If your complaint is unresolved after following Steps 1 and 2, you may escalate to the BMO Ombudsman.

The BMO Ombudsman conducts impartial reviews of unresolved complaints about products or services offered by BMO’s Canadian operating groups. The process is based on fairness, integrity and respect, and is focused on complaints for individual and small business customers.

The BMO Ombudsman will review concerns to determine if they are within its mandate. The BMO Ombudsman does not investigate certain types of complaints including business or risk management decisions, and matters that are, or have been, before a court.

Although the BMO Ombudsman is employed by BMO Financial Group and not an independent dispute resolution service, the Office does not report directly to any business areas and is not involved in BMO’s business operations.

At the conclusion of a review, the BMO Ombudsman may facilitate a resolution between the parties or make a recommendation to settle the complaint.

Voluntary Codes of Conduct and Public Commitments

The Canadian banking industry has developed several voluntary commitments and codes, designed to protect consumers and serve them better.

Copies or additional information about the voluntary commitments and codes are available on our website at https://www.bmo.com/home/popups/global/codes-of-conduct.

Alternative Options

Financial Consumer Agency of Canada (FCAC)

The FCAC supervises federally regulated financial institutions to ensure they comply with federal consumer protection laws and voluntary codes of conduct and public commitments.

For example, financial institutions are required to provide consumers with information about complaint handling procedures, fees, interest rates and branch closures.

If you have a complaint concerning a consumer protection law or voluntary code of conduct or public commitment, you may contact the FCAC at:

Financial Consumer Agency of Canada
427 Laurier Avenue West, 6th Floor, Ottawa, ON K1R 1B9
Call (English): 1-866-461-FCAC (3222)
Call (French): 1-866-461-ACFC (2232)

Teletypewriter (TTY): 1-866-914-6097 / 613-947-7771
Fax: 1-866-814-2224 / 613-941-1436

Note: The FCAC does not provide redress or compensation, and will not get involved in individual disputes.

For a complete list of federal consumer-protection laws, voluntary codes of conduct and public commitments, visit: canada.ca/en/financial-consumer-agency.html

Legal Assistance

You may consider retaining a lawyer to assist with the complaint. You should be aware that there are legal time limits for taking civil action called limitation periods.

A lawyer can advise you of your options. Once the applicable limitation period expires, you may lose rights to pursue some claims.
1. Talk to Us

Mutual Fund Dealers Association of Canada (MFDA)
The MFDA is the self-regulatory organization in Canada that investigates complaints about mutual fund dealers and their representatives, and takes enforcement action where appropriate. You may make a complaint to the MFDA at any time, whether or not you have complained to us. The MFDA does not order compensation or restitution to clients of Members. The MFDA exists to regulate the operations, standards of practice and business conduct of its Members and their representatives with a mandate to enhance investor protection and strengthen public confidence in the Canadian mutual fund industry.

The MFDA has also entered into a Co-Operative Agreement with the Autorité des marchés financiers and actively participates in the regulation of mutual fund dealers in Quebec.
