Pyrford Global Total Return (Euro) Fund, a sub-fund of BMO Investments (Ireland) plc Class A Euro Accumulating ISIN IE00B7GS4S23

Objectives and Investment Policy

The fund aims to provide a stable stream of returns that beats the rate of inflation over the long term while at the same time minimising changes in the share price of the fund and aiming to protect investors from losses as compared to the market. The fund invests in high quality fixed interest debt issued by governments and equities (shares) of companies that, at the time of purchase, have a minimum stock market worth of US$500 million. The fund can invest worldwide, however it places particular emphasis on North America, Europe (including the UK) and the Asia Pacific Region (including Japan). The fund will have significant exposure to euro-denominated assets.

The fund may invest up to 20% of its assets in the emerging global markets (markets at an early stage of development) and up to 25% of its assets in cash.

The fund may use derivatives to gain exposure to fixed interest debt, equities (shares) or an index, to manage risk and help meet the fund's objective. A derivative is a financial instrument whose value is based on the performance of another financial asset, index or investment.

For temporary defensive purposes, the fund may invest, without limitation, in money market instruments.

The fund may invest in other types of eligible investments, as disclosed in the prospectus for the fund.

This share class does not intend to distribute net income and gains.

You may sell your shares on any day on which banks in Dublin, London and New York are open for business by submitting an application to the administrator, State Street Fund Services (Ireland) Limited, by 10:30 a.m. (Irish time) on such day.

Recommendation: this fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money in the short term.

Risk and Reward Profile

The risk category is based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the fund. The risk category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged, and it may shift over time. The lowest risk category does not mean the investment is "risk free". The fund is in category 4 because changes in the price of its shares have typically been moderate.

The fund may also be exposed to material risks that the risk indicator does not adequately capture. These may include:

Credit risk: the issuer of a debt security may not be able to repay the full amount due on the maturity date, or the change in the price of a bond may be significant because of changes in interest rates or other market factors and this may reduce the value of your investment.

Emerging markets risk: securities in emerging markets may involve a higher degree of risk because these markets may be more unstable than developed markets due to regulatory, political, economic and social factors.

Currency risk: investing in assets denominated in a currency other than the share class currency exposes the value of the investment to exchange rate fluctuations.

Operational risk: management, business or administration processes, including those to do with the safekeeping of assets, may fail, leading to losses.

Derivatives risk: where derivatives are used to obtain, increase or reduce exposure to fixed interest debt, equities (shares) or an index, these derivatives may have an impact on the fund's risk profile.

For a more detailed explanation of these and other risks, please refer to the "Risk Factors" section of the prospectus for the fund.
